

affected area may develop, as small blood vessels thrombose and superficial nerves are destroyed.

Anesthesia Over Affected Area (Late Finding)

A-nest and late-clock

As the disease progresses, the pain out of proportion seen on exam may progress to anesthesia of the affected area. This is a result of thrombosis of small blood vessels and destruction of superficial nerves.