Graphics

This one is a little bit busy but every character is spacial in their own spots so as long as you keep them on their own layers we should be fine. The theme of this picture is Lazy so when you draw each person's face, make their expression bland or tired. The main character is the Slug sitting in the Lazy Boy recliner chair so put special coloring attention on him. He is wearing a leather jacket. By his side is a Sloth that is very Full from eating so he is laying there lifeless. Behind both of them are some Daisy Flowers locked up in chains and a Lock. In the bottom left a Medic with a Flag is helping an Ant that's drooling and the pool of drool spells IN on the left. Sitting on top of him is a squid with Lungs on top of his head. He is Lassoing a Toad by his foot. On the left the Queen with Cent coins on her looks disappointed in the Inert Nerd. The nerd is pointing at the far right column of a periodical table because the far right column represents Intert gases. Please make the column stand out and put a dot above it to make it an i. Also the queen has a torpedo sitting next to her side. Have fun, email with questions if you have any!
