This villainous tarantula has emerged from his mountain lair with a diabolical scheme. He announced his intentions to devour this adorable E kitty, unless someone of equal nutritional value volunteered to take its place. This heroic equal bull didn't spare a moment's hesitation, leaping his farmer's fence in a single bound. He declared himself the tastiest of all creatures as he stepped onto the scale. And when the scale found an equal balance, proving him nutritional, the tarantula gobbled him whole. His adorable pet curled up beside its villainous master and began to purr.
